Incorrect Uses of the ONVIF Logo

Incorrect use of the logo can tarnish the ONVIF brand image, so always use the logo correctly. Here are some issues to avoid when using the logo.

ONVIF Word Mark Usage

The Word Mark “ONVIF”

The primary trademark of ONVIF is the word “ONVIF.” This trademark has been registered in the United States, the European Union, China, Japan, and many other countries throughout the world. For the complete list of countries where ONVIF is registered, please see the ONVIF Global Trademark Status document available on the ONVIF Member Portal.

Use of ONVIF Word Mark to Indicate Membership

ONVIF members may use the ONVIF word mark for members’ corporate, promotional, and marketing purposes. Members may use the “ONVIF” word mark to describe the ONVIF organization and technology solution, and within the following phrases, “ONVIF member” or “member of ONVIF.”

Use of ONVIF Word Mark by ONVIF Members to Market Products

Only ONVIF profiles and ONVIF add-ons provide ONVIF conformance assurances. The words “conformance” or “conformant” can only be used in conjunction with a product that is conformant to an ONVIF profile or add-on. Additionally, such product conformance can only be claimed by an ONVIF member in good standing.

Correct: Conformant with ONVIF Profile [Letter]

Example: Conformant with ONVIF Profile T

Example: ONVIF Profile T conformant

Correct: Conformant with ONVIF [Use case name] Add-on [version no.]

Example: Conformant with ONVIF TLS Configuration Add-on v1.0

Example: ONVIF TLS Configuration Add-on v1.0 conformant

Members with non-conformant products may not reference ONVIF profiles or add-ons, but may reference the use of ONVIF specifications or protocols as long as the reference does not claim or lead the public to believe, or create a direct or indirect inference, that a non-conformant product has met the ONVIF conformance requirements. Incorrect and correct examples when referencing the use of an ONVIF feature, specification, or protocol include, but are not limited to:

Incorrect: ONVIF specification conformant; ONVIF protocol conformant

Incorrect: ONVIF specification certified; ONVIF protocol certified

Incorrect: ONVIF compatible; ONVIF protocol compatible

Incorrect: Complies with ONVIF specification; Complies with ONVIF protocol

Incorrect: Compatible with ONVIF; Compatible with ONVIF protocol

Correct: Implements/supports ONVIF [protocol or specification name and reference name of service specification document] – not ONVIF profile or add-on conformant.

Example: Implements ONVIF motion alarm event (Ref: ONVIF Service Imaging Specification) – not ONVIF profile or add-on conformant.

Incorrect Uses of the ONVIF Word Mark

The ONVIF word mark may not be used within the member's official product name.

ONVIF shall not be used in a way that could lead the public to believe, or create a direct or indirect inference, that a non-conformant product has met the ONVIF conformance requirements or interoperates with other ONVIF conformant products. A non-conformant product that supports other ONVIF conformant products must make clear publicly that the product is not ONVIF conformant or has not met the ONVIF conformance requirements.

No one may use or associate any of the following terms, or the like, to describe a product:

- "ONVIF compliant"
- "ONVIF certified"
- "ONVIF compatible"
- "ONVIF Interoperable"
- "ONVIF registered"
- "ONVIF tested"

Specific Guidelines for Using the Word Mark "ONVIF"

This section begins by establishing what is permitted and not permitted, depending on the status of completion of the conformance process for a member company's product(s).

The ONVIF word mark may not be used in any context, such as in the phrase "ONVIF conformance candidate," that implies that a product or component will or may successfully complete conformance in the future or that a product or component, when combined with other components or products, will result in a product that will or may successfully complete the conformance process in the future.

Only after a member's product is officially registered as ONVIF conformant shall the member use any of the wording in List 1 below. All members – including those who have products that they expect to eventually complete the ONVIF conformance process but have not yet completed – may refer to their ONVIF membership in their public communications using the below List 2.

List 1 Words and phrases reserved for ONVIF conformant products	List 2 Words and phrases that may be used by all ONVIF members

Use of the “®” Symbol With the ONVIF Word Mark

The registered trademark symbol “®” must be added in a superscript format immediately following the word mark wherever the word mark first appears on product packaging, products, web pages, and marketing pieces and in textual information.

Example: ONVIF® conformant

Example: Member of ONVIF®

Then, as a footnote on the page where the ® symbol is first used, you should include the attribution statement:

“ONVIF is a trademark of ONVIF, Inc.”

Consistent and positive use of ONVIF trademarks benefits all ONVIF members; do not portray the ONVIF word mark in a negative manner or in any way that weakens, creates confusion, or otherwise depreciates any ONVIF mark.
